THE TALLIS SCHOLARS

'Metamorphosis'

The programme aims to show how composers from three separate traditions - Catholic, Anglican and Russian Orthodox - have interpreted the same texts. The Catholic and Anglican composers are from the Renaissance period while the Orthodox are modern.

Through four decades of performance and numerous award-winning recordings, Peter Phillips and The Tallis Scholars have contributed enormously to establishing sacred vocal music of the Renaissance as one of the great repertoires of Western classical music. They continue to develop their exclusive sound, praised by reviewers for its supple clarity and tone, and to bring fresh interpretations to music by contemporary as well as past composers.
